There are things that we don't want to happen but have to accept, things we don't want to know but have to learn, and people we can't live without but have to let go. ~Author Unknown

Thinking of you, wherever you are.
We pray for our sorrows to end,
and hope that our hearts will blend.
Now I will step forward to realize this wish.
And who knows:

starting a new journey may not so hard or maybe it has already begun. -Kingdom Hearts

The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God
Was going to call your name
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you,
In death we do love same.
It breaks our heart to lose you
You did not go alone;
For a part of us went with you,
The day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories,
Your love is still our guide;
And though we cannot see you,
You are always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
And nothing seems the same;
But as God calls us one by one,
The CHAIN will link again.

In loving memory of Keith Tedford and Cody Smith

Finally, life for all us seniors is going to change after this year! All these years have been special and I hope there will be more to come. I will always remember all of us Nordic skiers wearing our colorful spandex and our crazy pictures. I will also remember soufflé night, Crescent Park, drifting, and hanging out with all of my friends (you all know who you are). Brie, Rochelle, Esther, Deno (Jen) you have been there for me through all these years- please keep in touch. I wish the best for all you seniors and hope that you will succeed in life to come.

Brianne M. Bailey

With each action, there are a thousand more consequences. With each person you meet, you change a life. When you stop to notice something small, you alter the future. So, before time slips you by take the time to ponder why have you met those closest to you, have they possibly changed your life.? Most importantly if those who are closest to you are pried from your grasp do not mourn them. Remember the memories. Amidst all the tears I bet there will be at least one smile, and hasn't that made everything worth while. So here's to the good memories may I never forget or regret them.

Eden G. Bartholomew

I have recently come to discover that life doesn't always work in your favor. Along with life comes drama, pain and suffering. Nana & Barry; thanks for caring. Tom & Kathy; thanks for letting me experience endurance. C. Bean, C. Boelsma, A. Pivin, K. Cuddemi, K. Driscoll, T. WOW! My high school career is finally over. Although this is something life changing, and I have been looking forward to this its upsetting to me because I'm leaving the people I grew up with. ## Eric M. Berard

Telstar has taught me so much, for example how many things I can put in my teachers coffee without them knowing, just kidding. Teachers, Mr. Bennett, by far one of the most down-to-earth people I've met, thanks for the confidence. Ryan, we've been through a lot, and as much as this sounds like a line from a cheesy soap-opera, you've been loyal, and I'm glad I can call you a best friend. AJ, Frankie, Paul, Andrew, I promised I'd write this in my senior write up, he said puppet. You four have been great friends and we had some great times too. Joelle, thanks for all the help with school. Mom, Brian, thanks for everything you've taught me. John, where you might have not gone to my high school, definitely one of my best friends through it all and always will be. Jillian, you're an amazing girl. To all my other friends, you can only write so much in 950 characters, Ill miss you all and dont forget to bring a towel. Chapter 2, College

Carey A. Boelsma

I can't believe how fast these four years have gone by. I want to start by thanking my parents for everything, especially putting up with me all these years, Mariah, Trina and lil bro, you all have had a huge impact on my life and I don't know what I would do without you. I love you. Luth, and Thandra, my ladies.

We've had so many good times these past years and so many more to come, we'll be the fabulous three forever. Some words of advice. Evan- settle down will ya? Chelsea- Never wear make-up in public, you're prolly gonna get kidnapped, I hope you one day get your chance to walk into a room full of cheezits, Annie- we need to avoid driving with each other at all times, we just might get ON another accident. I can't even begin to tell you how lucky I am to have you two, so thank you for everything. I have a feeling we'll be seeing each other after high school. Love you. J Lindsay, (Sarah+Andrew) Julia, Kate, Ethan, Bethany-

Thank you all.

Thomas P. Bordeau Jr.

This is it. Dad, I never told you, but you are my biggest role model. Toms9C1 was fun, can't wait for the 2 door version. VWs and 4-banger imports still suck. RIP Tempo (It was a Ford, nobody cares). Mom, you introduced me to God, and because of that I am saved. Grandparents, all of you have helped in some way, I love you all. Corey 2 A.M.

breakfast, living at your place, Bermuda triangle, good times I'll never forget. It's not over yet is the clincher. Des, Mike, Ben, you know what it is. Hatchet man, P-town at 12 in the morn, BOSTON, screaming at people, projectiles, and fast food diets. Greg, JJ, mad skate and snow sessions of beyond, not easily forgotten. Lindsay, the loop, work together, couldnt ask for a better friend. However there is nothing left for me here, and though there were good times, it has been hard. Good luck everyone. I believe we are meant to understand our body-minds as individual spiritual powers expressive of a greater Divine energy. We are meant to discover both our personal power and our shared purpose for being alive within a spiritual context. Experiences that carry emotional energy in our energy systems include past and present relationships, memories, belief patterns, and attitudes. I thank everybody who has contributed in the positive formation of the exquisite energy that will forever reside within me. Now, I will follow my calling. I THIRST!

It's been the best of times, its been the worst of times. My age of wisdom as a sophomore, my infinite foolishness as a freshman. My endless beliefs and letdowns as an underclassman. Through Light and Darkness; Hope and Despair.

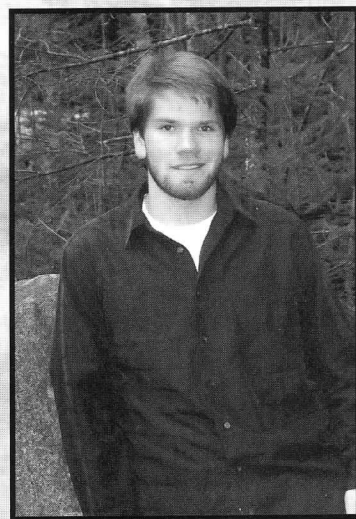

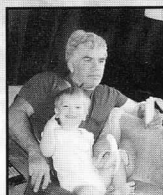

Having everything before me and then nothing and doing nothing about it. Thank you my friends and loved ones, you all know who you are. Im not mentioning specific events for fear that I might forget one. But, to my friends, I don't know how I could have made it though high school if it wasnt for your kindness and when I was all alone and so new to this place. I'll never forget you. Especially a certain Mr. Emerson who was always there when I needed him. Thank You. And always remember, don't cry because it's over, smile because it happened. -Dr. Seuss

Fortunately for myself, throughout my entire school career I've been blessed with nonstop, loving support from my wonderful family and friends. You incredible human beings have no idea how much you mean to me. Mum and Dad- I'll always be your little girl. The word I would use to describe my friends of 1, 4, or 12 years- is marvelous. With every passing day a new memory is created, cherished, and eventually lost forever. At this moment in our lives, our High School memories became the focal point of our youth. As the years continue to pass, the memories will rejuvenate the soul, and rebirth feelings of hope and enchantment. The best years of my life were spent sliding down Richards Hill in the frigid depth of winter, getting lost in the back yard, creating obscene Ma Libs for laughs, and spending my summer nights with the two greatest people in the world. Words can't express how much I long to relive those times of simplicity. Josie, Sarah, you ladies mean the world to me. Through thick and thin, I'll always be there. Ma/Pa: I'm defiantly your daughter. I know you'll love me till the end-right back at you :) Brooke: my little sis, couldn't be asked for better. Don't grow up too quick. I love you. Little man: You can't read but I love you with all my heart.

Rochelle A. Jewell

It seems like it is all over too soon; like I blinked and high school had ended. Don't wish it over; it goes too fast. Mom, Bruce, Rocky, Tim. I wasn't always easy to get along with but you supported me and helped me when I needed you most; thank you for everything. Dad, I wish you could see me now, I know you would be proud. To all of my friends and teammates, thank you so much; I am so grateful to have had the chance to know you, keep in touch. Remember the long bus rides (running out of gas), shoeless relays, muddy courses, and falling. Yeah, we fell down a lot but we laughed a lot too. Brie, in case of the aliens attack, thanks for everything, you are my best friend. To all my friends, we had so great times and I will miss you. I love you all!

Cyrus M. Krahn

Wow what a year. Some great memories have been made these past 4 years. All the times with friends and family. Senior year is definitely the best. This is something all you underclassmen can look forward to. I just want to say thanks to anyone who has contributed to the success of my high school career over the years. I have made a lot of great memories with my friends. Joey, Nick, Andrew, and anyone else who I forgot thanks for a great time. Remember that night when we broke your driveshaft Joey? Or that night when we had to replace the rear-end in your truck? Fords, I tell ya you'll never stop replacing parts in em. If it's anything you underclassmen will learn from me it's DON'T BUY A FORD!! Thanks have fun in high school kids. - Cyrus

Bobbie J. Lamontagne

I can't believe this year has finally gotten here! It felt like it took forever. First I would like to say a special Thanks to the ones who stood behind me and pushed me forward. Without you I wouldn't have made it. They are my parents, Grammy and my sister Holly. Chris is another special person in my life; I love you with all of my heart. Thank you for everything! Now to my younger siblings, I'm going to tell you the same thing everyone told me, If you want it bad enough you will work hard to get it, don't give up. Memoirs, there are only two that hit the top. Mrs. Carson, you remember when I was tipping my chair and fell out of it? That was funny but remember that time at Fun Town when you slipped and fell on your butt? Now that was hilarious! You have helped make my high school years fun. To the friends that I'm leaving behind. I'm not saying goodbye, I'm saying I'll see you when it's your turn to leave. To the Class of 2008, We made it! Hey Bucky we finally got to this day!!

Beyond Redemption. By: HIM, Album: Love Metal (2003)

Oh I see your scars I know where they're from/ So sensually carved and bleeding until you're dead and gone/ I've seen it all before beauty and splendor torn/ It's when heaven turns to black and hell to white/ Right so wrong and wrong so right Now/ Feel it turning your heart into stone/ Feel it piercing your courageous soul/ You're beyond redemption/ And no one's gonna catch you when you fall. Oh I see you crawl you can barely walk/ And arms wide open you keep on begging for more/ I've been there before knocking on the same door/ It's when hate turns to love and love to hate/ Faith to doubt and doubt to faith/ Now Feel it turning your heart into stone/ Feel it piercing your courageous soul/ You're beyond redemption/ And no one's gonna catch you when you fall

Kyle F. Maines

I'd like to be original by starting with thanking my family and friends. First of all thank you Mom for everything you've done for me over the years. Although there were times that it seemed that I took things for granted the truth is... I couldn't have done it without you. Dad, you were always there for me no matter how far away the game was. You supported everything I did and I really appreciate it. I'm lucky to have both of you and happy that I could share four of the best years of my life with you. Thank you to the rest of my friends and family who have helped me through the good and the bad. Love you Lori!

Britney N. Merrill

The unreal is more powerful than the real, because nothing is as perfect as you can imagine it. Because its only intangible ideas, concepts, beliefs, fantasies that last. Stone crumbles. Wood rots. People, well, they die. But things as fragile as a thought, a dream, a legend, they can go on and on.

-Chuck Palahniuk

Mom thank you for everything, you have been truly inspirational. Dad I wouldn't be the person I am today without you. Brock thanks for always being there. Much love and hope to the class of 2008 and the rest of my cherished ones. I'll remember you for always.

Patrick W. Milligan

I'm not going to waste space talking about how I'm going to miss everybody here at Telstar; instead I'm just going to write about people. First the Midnight walk folks, Thomas Henley, Travis Morton, Dave Martin, Cross and the other guests. Thanks for all of the discussions about the most random things; I especially enjoyed the ones on physics. Thanks for a few others too. First the Andover/BP/Bethel folks spend my weekends with, Esther, Brie, Amy, Liz, Mat, Cass you guys rock. Everybody who participated in Drama, band, or any other organization I was in, thanks. Thanks to my parents for providing me a place to sleep and two sisters to argue with. Ha. Thanks to my teachers, who treated me well despite my work ethic (or lack thereof). Thanks to all Andover people, who I grew up with. Thanks to Molly for being a cool kid in general Chuck Norris And thanks to Dee for still being in my head. I'll miss you till I see you again.

Amber L. Morin

Congrats to the class of 2008. All of us are moving on now but our memories will always be with us. Through bad times and the good times we've been through them all. Trista, we've known each other since the fourth grade and I'll never forget how much fun we had. Krystina, even though you moved here in the middle of high school, I feel like I know you like my sister. Remember the notes at drivers ed class, hanging out with Chris, and when we went shopping at the furniture store. That changed everything. I wish the best luck to all three of you. Chris, I don't think that anyone could change me like you did. You made me a more outgoing person, and I'm sure everyone would agree. I love you so much, and wish the best luck to you.

Trista M. Morin

We keep moving forward, opening new doors, and doing new things, because we're curious and curiosity keeps leading us down new paths. - Walt Disney. For the Telstar seniors of 2008, the doors here are closing. Congrats to all. These years have definitely been the best years of my life. Telstar has been filled with friends coming and going, drama starting and ending, and memories that will never fade. I would never have been able to survive without any of my friends. A. Morin, K. Cuddemi, V. Rice, the entire senior class, and all of the underclassmen.

One huge part of my life, that I know will always be there, is my family. I can't imagine trying to get through anything without, my parents, my grandparents and finally my little sisters. I Love You Two. This seniors, has only been our warm up lap; within the next few months, the real race begins. The race to survive, the race to the top, and the race to finish what we have only just begun!

Lisandra Ojeda

Here comes the time that we as seniors leave something of ourselves behind in print to represent our memories and history of Telstar. Well, it feels like these past three years have flown by so quickly that I have yet to catch up to the idea of this being my last year. I remember so much from my time here, some good, some bad but all with the thought. I hold dear the times spent with friends the most, even if we part ways I hold all of you in my mind. Mostly in heart. I love you all so much, Chelsea, Bliss, Ariel, David, and yes even you Buck. I want to thank teachers that I've had over the years as well. Those who gave me a chance after chance whether I deserved them or not, it really meant a lot. I never dreamed of getting so far in my life and can't wait to turn the page after this.

start a new chapter in my life.

I want to say thank you to my parents, Eileen and Sidney. I wouldn't be the person I am today without your support and help. I also want to say thanks to my brother, Elek. You've always been there for me and although I may embarrass you, I love you and I couldn't ask for a better brother. Enjoy your high school years while they last. Patrick, Brie, Mark, and Julia - since we've been friends for so long you all deserve special recognition. You guys are the best. I know that in twenty years I can call you up and we'll be able to talk like we saw each other yesterday. Thanks for everything. To all my other friends, remember that oak trees were once acorns, so even nuts can become something great.

However mean your life is, meet it and live it: do not shun it and call it hard names. Cultivate poverty like a garden herb, like sage. Do not trouble yourself much to get new things, whether clothes or friends. Things do not change, we change. Sell your clothes and keep your thoughts. -Henry David Thoreau

"I've learned one thing, and that's to quit worrying about stupid things. You have four years to be irresponsible here. Relax. Work is for people with jobs. You'll never remember class time, but you'll remember time you wasted hanging out with your friends. So, stay out late. Go out on a Tuesday with your friends when you have a paper due Wednesday. Spend money you don't have. The work never ends, but high school does." -Tom Petty Congratulations Class of 08! We've finally made it! I've had a fun few years, and I'm going to miss most of you. Austin Buck, you have been there for me no matter what and helped me through a lot, you are my best friend, thank you! Mr. Antell, you've always been able to make me laugh no matter what, you're pretty awesome! And to everybody else, have a great life, it was fun while it lasted!

Joelle L. Silver

I don't know why we put things off, but if I had to guess, I'd have to say it has a lot to do with fear. Fear of failure, fear of rejection, sometimes the fear is just of making a decision, because what if you're wrong? What if you're making a mistake you can't undo? The early bird catches the worm. A stitch in time saves nine. He who hesitates is lost. We can't pretend we hadn't been told. We've all heard the proverbs, heard the philosophers, heard our grandparents warning us about wasted time, heard the poets urging us to seize the day. Still sometimes we have to see for ourselves. We have to make our own mistakes. We have to learn our own lessons. We have to sweep today's possibility under tomorrow's rug until we can't anymore. Until we finally understand for ourselves that knowing is better than wondering, that waking is better than sleeping, and even the biggest failure, even the worst, beats the heck out of never trying.

Tia L. Sprague

To my family and friends, you have all my love. Dad, taco Sundays will always be my favorite and you really don't look as old as I say you do. Mom, you've definitely taught me how to be a girly girl, and for that I'm thankful. Andrew, you're a stud just like your sister; keep up my good rep. I love you guys. George and Carrie, you're truly amazing and I love you both. Derrick, despite your weird obsession with movies, you're utterly perfect. I couldn't ask for a better boo. Late nights with Raymond wouldn't have been possible without you. You're the right side of my smile, I love you. And yes, Wikipedia helps get me A's. To the world, watch out because I don't know how to put this, but I'm kind of a big deal??

Julia A. Stambolis

Congrats 08, the future looks bright! Dad and Ashley, much love and many thanks, growing up couldn't have been any better. Mom, thank you for your support. Rule #76: No excuses, play like a champion.

I had a great four years of high school and I have a lot of memories with my friends. A lot of the help came from Carson's room because when I had a hard time on some of my work, all the teachers in there helped me out and they gave me a lot of support. But, most of the support came from home, like my parents and my sisters. I might not have graduated on time if it was not for my family. I give thanks to Mrs. Marshall, Mrs. Carson, Mrs. Hutchins and Mrs. Savage. I want to give special thanks to my family, like my mom, dad, sisters, grandfather and grandmothers. Congratulations class of 2008.

Yearbook Dedication 2008

The dedication of this year's yearbook was not simple. Although it was narrowed down to a select few, one candidate shined brighter than the rest. He is a person of good character and has the ability to easily motivate students. He has pushed us hard to achieve our best in not only school, but life as well. The positive and upbeat attitude has always influenced our daily lives, and his unending sarcasm has kept us on the edge of our seats. Whether it's helping out with senior presentations, or making a joke to better someone's day, he has always been there for us. He has gone one step above the rest: not only has he been an exceptional teacher, he has become our friend. Congratulations Mr. Bennett, it's been a long time coming.

*The day you were born you touched my soul,
You were the missing link that made my life whole.
As days turned to months and months turned to years,
I watched you grow as a child through laughter and tears.
The baby I once held, cared for, and watched over at night,
Has now become a strong young woman, so beautiful and bright.
You have a great life ahead, and your dreams are coming true,
My dear daughter, I am so very proud of you.*

Son,

As you prepare to step out into the world, follow your dreams and believe in yourself. Always look forward, never look back as we are all there right behind you.....remember the "clutch-talk" on the way to your games. Draw strength from the memories of your childhood, your family, and friends. Believe you can fly - and fly like an eagle. We all love you and are proud of the person you have grown to be.

Dad, Mom and the whole gang

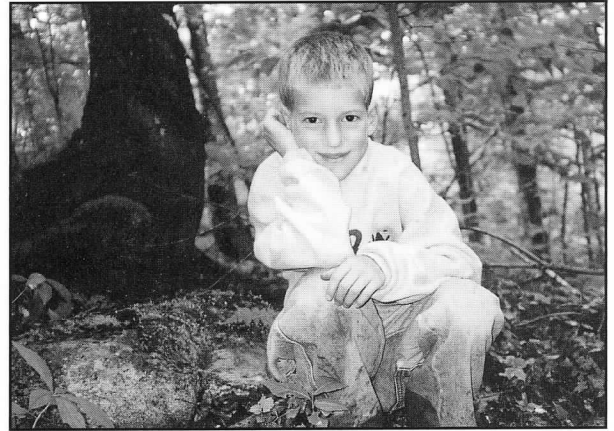

PS: and in Opa's words, "Do what's right and don't be afraid of anyone."

Esther Pew

Dear Esther,
Remember in life, you always make your own luck.
Love always,
Mom, Dad & Elek

Dane Wilson

Wow Dane, where did the years go? Your antics and sense of humor have kept us on our toes. Life is often a very challenging road. You should be proud of what you've accomplished thus far, and excited about where it will lead you next.

You've always had a very big heart, sometimes taken advantage of or misunderstood because of it, but don't ever let that change. Continue to believe in yourself. We believe in you, and are very proud of the young man you've become. We love you and are always here for you.

Love Mom & Dad

I hope your dreams take you to the corners of your smile.

We're wicked proud of you.

Love Danna, Drew and Heath

Rochelle Jewell

May you look toward the horizon, yet keep loved ones close.
May you recognize your unique talents, yet remain humble.
May you celebrate your achievements, yet remember those who helped you. May you seek answers to your questions, yet remain true to your heart-held beliefs. May you explore, discover and experience life to the fullest, knowing love goes with you each step of the way. Congratulations Rochelle! We love you!

Thomas Bordeaux

My Son,
Before the beginning of time
Before anyone else
There was us.
You and me against the world
Against the wind ~
You and me, my son.
We gained a family
And loved. And lived.
Suddenly, it is just you.
Before you, the road ahead.
You against the world, against the wind.
Go, my son.

I grieve before you are gone.

You, my soul

You, my story. My great love.

Create a beautiful life.

Whether it flows easy as a brook

Or needs to be carved out of stone.

Create a beautiful story all your own.

I watch you go.

Your footprints leave trenches in my heart.

You have always been all mine

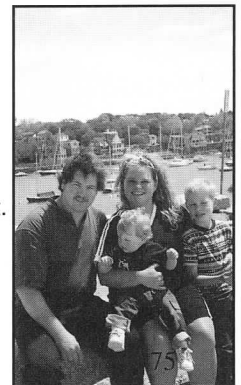

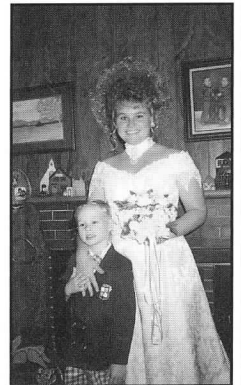

Since the beginning of time

And now it's time to part

You are my soul, my beautiful story

Forever, forever my son.

I love you, Mom

is long, but if you choose the right path, the Journey to your dreams
won't seem quite so far.

Josh Beeler

Thank you.....
For teaching me
to never take anything for granted,
For showing me trust,
For catching me when I fell the hardest,
For never giving up,
For living every day to the fullest,
For loving me like no other,
But most of all, for being you.

Congratulations, baby! Never stop reaching for your goals. You are my hero.
I love you, Austri Lynn

Growing Up, by Mai
Paths we take
Choices we make
Paths we take alone
Choices we make on our own

We all grow up and learn
We all take different turns
Turns in our path of life
Turns that may lead to strife

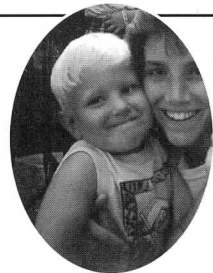

Problems we go through
Problems exists in other lives too
Having problems are not wrong
Having problems do not stay forever long

Conflicts causes growth in many ways
Lessons we learn will always stay
Conflicts we gain as years go on
Lessons we learn, makes us more strong

Sarah,
You have grown into a beautiful, caring,
incredible young lady, with a heart of gold.
Always know you have many great friends and a loving family that will always be there when you need us. We couldn't be more proud of the person you have become and know you will succeed in whatever you choose to do in life. Just remember, you will always be our little girl!
We love you, Mom, Dad & Ben

*Desman,
You have always been so special in all the things you've said and done. I am so very proud of you simply because you're my grandson.
Love, Nana & Tom*

Desman, Your birth was a joy and a blessing! Having you in my life has provided me with my greatest opportunity for growth and for that I am grateful. I have come to understand and accept that love has brought us together for a reason. I have learned so much about myself from loving you and learning to accept you as you are. Watching you grow and develop has provided me with some of my greatest joys. Watching you learn from your journey has taught me how to let go. Your talents and potential are extraordinary and I give thanks for the gift of being your mother. Thank you for all that is uniquely you. I love you!! Love, Mom.

As usual, this yearbook would not be possible without the help of several people. Special thanks go out to Alison Aloisio of the Bethel Citizen and Jim Hannigan of Intervale Photography for their help with providing many of the photos in our sports section. Thanks to students and staff who participated in our fundraisers and parents who provided photos. This year's editors Eva Thornton and Chelsea Bean also deserve special thanks for their dedication to producing the book.
